ACCESS WORKSTATIONS FOR THE ENVIRONMENTAL COMPUTING CENTER

Thanks to Sun Microsystems Incorporated we were able to upgrade the proposed acquisition to 9 SUN SPARC 10 workstations, each with 16 mbytes of RAM and a 16" color monitor, plus 2 SUN SPARC LX workstations. The latter provide X-Windows service to the SPARC 10s. The presence of this facility led to a heavily-discounted purchase of a powerful geographical information system. The SPARC 10's are in constant use by COAS students, sometimes approaching 100% saturation. Monthly usage statistics are available. In particular, a one-week course: "Parallel Laboratory in Ocean Modeling" was made possible by the facility. The laboratory was attended by 14 scientists from the U.S., Mexico and France, speakers included experts from Intel Corporation, IBM, Thinking Machines Corporation and Cray Research.
